1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Complainant asserts that Respondent Haverford Township Democratic 3 Committee ("the Committee") violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as 4 amended, ("the Act") by using $1,480.60 in nonfederal funds to pay for a newsletter that 5 endorsed federal, state, and local candidates and failing to include requisite federal and 6 state disclaimers on the newsletters and the Committee's website.

7 Respondent requests the Commission dismiss the matter because (1) the 8 newsletter is exempt party activity that may be paid with nonfederal funds; (2) the 10044263154

1 newsletter contains an appropriate federal disclaimer; (3) the website and online 2 contribution form do not require a federal disclaimer because neither contain political 3 information about, nor solicit contributions for, federal candidates; and (4) the 4 Commission does not have jurisdiction over Pennsylvania election laws. MUR 6088 5 Response.

6 For the reasons set forth below, we are recommending that the Commission find 7 no reason to believe that Respondent violated the Act.

8 II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

9 A. Factual Background

10 Respondent, Haverford Township Democratic Committee, is a local political 11 party committee in Pennsylvania. The Committee does not have a federal account and is 12 not registered with the Commission. In September 2008, the Committee ordered 20,000 13 newsletters, at the cost of $1,480.60, that contained information about federal, state, and 14 local Democratic Party candidates. See MUR 6088 Response (Attach. 1). Committee 15 volunteers distributed the newsletters before the election in November. Id. at 2.

16 The newsletter urges voters to elect two federal and three nonfederal Democratic 17 candidates and includes material on the candidates' positions, biographical information, 18 previous legislative accomplishments, and features statements each candidate has made 19 on a selected issue.<sup>1</sup> MUR 6088 Complaint (Attach. 1). The newsletter also provides 20 voting information, including the voter registration deadline, absentee ballot information, 21 and the date of the general election. Id. (Attach. 1). A disclaimer at the bottom of the

<sup>1</sup> The candidate statements include: "Barack Obama on Economic Prosperity;" "Congressman Joe Sestak on Health Security;" "State Rep. Daylin Leach for State Senator on Education Equality;" "State Representative Greg Vitali on Environmental Responsibility;" and "Dan Siegel for 4th Ward Commissioner on Integrity." MUR 6088 Complaint (Attach. 1).

1   newaletter reads, "Paid for by the Haverford Township Democratic Committee" and 2   includes the link for the Committee's website (www.HaverfordDemocrats.com). Id.
3   (Attach. 1).

4           The Committee website includes voter information, a calendar of events, and 5   links to the Democratic National Committee's website and the websites of specific 6   Democratic Party candidates. See <http://www.haverforddemocrats.com>. Respondent 7   asserts that its website "does not contain any political information on federal candidates." 8   MUR 6088 Response at 2. At the time Complainant filed the complaint with the 9   Commission, this website did not include a disclaimer. Id. at 2 (stating "[the] webpage 10   does not include a statement that the web page was paid for by the [Committee]. It is 11   obvious that the Haverford Township Democratic Committee pays for its own web page .
12   . ."). A disclaimer has since been added to the website. See 13   <http://www.haverforddemocrats.com> (stating "Paid for by the Haverford Township 14   Democratic Party Committee") (last visited June 9, 2009).

15           Finally, the Committee's website includes a link to "Contribute." See id. The 16   ensuing webpage provides a physical address for contributions via check as well as an 17   option to make contributions online. The Complaint asserts that the online contribution 18   page violates the Act because it does not include disclaimers that the Committee is 19   raising funds for federal candidates nor information about applicable federal contribution 20   limits. MUR 6088 Complaint. Respondents assert that the website does not raise funds 21   for any federal candidate. MUR 6088 Response at 2.

B. Analysis

We conclude that Respondents have not violated the Act. Although the newsletter does not qualify for the slate card exemption claimed by Respondents, it nevertheless can be paid for with nonfederal funds under the volunteer materials exemption. The newsletter contains an appropriate disclaimer. Further, because the Committee website and online contribution form contain no information about, nor solicit contributions for, federal candidates, they do not require a disclaimer. Finally, the Commission does not have jurisdiction over Pennsylvania state election laws.

1. Slate card exemption

While Respondent asserts that the newsletter could be paid for with nonfederal funds under the slate card exemption, we disagree. Under the Act, expenditures by state and local political party committees of the costs incurred to prepare, display, mail, or otherwise distribute a printed slate card, sample ballot, or "other printed listing(s)" of three or more candidates for any public office who are to be elected in the relevant state are exempt from the definitions of "contribution" or "expenditure." 2 U.S.C. § 431(9)(B)(viii); 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.87 and 100.147.

Materials subject to the slate card exemption, however, may only include basic candidate and voting information such as allowing (1) information identifying candidates by name or by means of a picture; (2) the office or position currently held by the candidates; (3) the elective office being sought by the candidates; (4) party affiliation; and (5) voting information, such as the time and place of an election and instructions on the method for voting a straight party ticket. Advisory Opinion 2008-06 (Virginia Democratic Party). Publications that go beyond these informational limitations and

1 provide additional biographical information, descriptions of candidates' positions on the 2 issues, or statements of party philosophy, however, do not qualify for the slate card 3 exemption. See Advisory Opinions 1978-09 (Republican State Central Committee of 4 Iowa) and 1978-89 (Withers) (slate card exemption does not apply to campaign material 5 that contained excess biographical data, outlined candidates' positions, criticized 6 incumbent officials, and included statements of party philosophy).

7 The Committee's newsletter includes candidate statements that inform voters of 8 the candidates' prior legislative accomplishments on specific issues and their plans to 9 pursue those issues in the office they are seeking. In one candidate statement entitled, 10 "Congressman Joe Sestak on Health Security," the narrative reads, "Upon being elected 11 to Congress in 2006, one of the first priorities I set was to address healthcare reform." 12 MUR 6088 Complaint (Attach. 1). The narrative then continued by listing his 13 accomplishments while serving on two Congressional Committees that deal with health 14 care. Id. (Attach. 1). Similar statements include: "Barack Obama on Economic 15 Prosperity;" "State Rep. Daylin Leach for State Senator on Education Equality;" "State 16 Representative Greg Vitali on Environmental Responsibility;" and "Dan Siegel for 4th 17 Ward Commissioner on Integrity." Id. (Attach. 1). Accordingly, the newsletter does not 18 qualify for the slate card exemption.

19 2. Volunteer materials exemption

20 Under the Act, a local committee's payment for campaign materials, including a 21 newsletter, "in connection with volunteer activities . . . is not a contribution." 2 U.S.C. § 22 431(9)(B)(viii) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.87 and 100.147. To qualify for the exemption, a 23 state or local committee must pay for the newsletters under the conditions that: (1) the 10044263158

1 committee's payment for the campaign material is not for "general public communication 2 or political advertising," which includes direct mail; (2) the portion of the payment 3 allocable to a federal candidate "must be paid from contributions subject to the 4 limitations and prohibitions of the Act;" (3) the committee's payment must not be paid 5 for from funds designated for a particular federal candidate by the donor; (4) campaign 6 materials must be "distributed by volunteers and not by commercial or for-profit 7 operations;" (5) the committee's payment must have been disclosed as a disbursement; 8 and (6) campaign materials must not be purchased either directly by a national committee 9 or with funds donated by the national committee to the state committee. 11 C.F.R. §§ 10 100.87(a)-(e), (g) and 100.147(a)-(e), (g).

11 Based on the available information, the newsletter appears to satisfy the 12 regulatory requirements necessary to qualify for the volunteer materials exemption. First, 13 the newsletter was not a general public communication or political advertising distributed 14 via broadcast, newspaper, magazine, billboard, or direct mail. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.87(a) 15 and 100.147(a). Indeed, the newsletter was distributed by local volunteers. MUR 6088 16 Response at 2. Second, a review of the Committee's state campaign finance report 17 indicates that the Committee had sufficient federal eligible funds at the time of the 18 disbursements for the newsletters at issue. Specifically, the newsletters cost $1,480.60 to 19 produce while pre-election reports with the state's campaign finance authority revealed 20 the Committee had $12,607.99 in total available funds at the time the newsletters were 21 produced and that its receipts consisted of funds received from individual donors in

10044263159

1 amounts less than the federal limit of $2,300.<sup>2</sup> Third, Complainant and Respondent 2 provide no information, and there is no other available information that suggests that the 3 Committee used funds designated for a particular federal candidate. Finally, Respondent 4 maintains that because it does not raise funds on behalf of federal candidates, it is under 5 no obligation to report disbursements in accordance with the Act. Id.

6 Accordingly, we recommend the Commission find no reason to believe that the 7 Haverford Township Democratic Party violated the Act by using nonfederal funds for 8 newsletters that qualify as exempt volunteer materials pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 9 431(9)(B)(viii).

10 3. Disclaimer

11 The Act requires a disclaimer "when any person makes a disbursement for the 12 purpose of financing communications expressly advocating the election or defeat of a 13 clearly identified candidate . . ." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). See also 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(a)(2) 14 (requiring a disclaimer for "All public communications . . . by any person that expressly 15 advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate."); 11 C.F.R. § 16 110.11(a)(3) (requiring a disclaimer for "All public communications . . . by any person 17 that solicit any contribution."). A public communication includes any broadcast, cable, 18 or satellite communication, telephone bank, mass mailing, or general public political 19 advertising. 11 C.F.R. § 100.26.

20 The disclaimer must be presented in a "clear and conspicuous manner" in order to 21 give the reader, observer, or listener "adequate notice of the identity of the person or

<sup>2</sup> The exemption that campaign materials must not be purchased either directly by a national committee or with funds donated by the national committee to the state committee does not apply to the newsletter at issue because Committee records indicate that Respondent used its own funds for the newsletter.

10044263160

1 political committee that paid for and, where required, that authorized the 2 communication." 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(c)(1). A disclaimer, if paid for and authorized by a 3 candidate or an authorized committee of a candidate, must clearly state that the 4 communication has been paid for by the authorized political committee. 11 C.F.R. § 5 110.11(b)(1).

6 a. Newsletter disclaimer

7 Commission regulations provide that for exempt activities under 11 C.F.R. §§ 8 100.140 (slate cards and sample ballots), 100.147 (volunteer activity for party 9 committees), 100.148 (volunteer activity for candidate), or 100.149 (voter registration 10 and get-out-the-vote activities for presidential candidates), "the disclaimer does not need 11 to state whether the communication is authorized by a candidate, or any authorized 12 committee or agent of any candidate." 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(e).

13 Because the Committee's newsletter qualifies as exempt volunteer activity under 14 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.87 and 100.147, see supra Part II.B.2, it need only meet the disclaimer 15 requirements under 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(e) (stating "the disclaimer does not need to state 16 whether the communication is authorized by a candidate, or any authorized committee or 17 agent of any candidate."). Respondent therefore maintains that the statement, "Paid for 18 by the Haverford Township Democratic Committee," meets the disclaimer requirements 19 under the Act. MUR 6088 Response at 1.

20 As Respondent notes, the disclaimer is at the bottom of the first page of the 21 newsletter and states, "Paid for by the Haverford Township Democratic Committee" in at 22 least 12-point font, which meets the Act's disclaimer requirements. Accordingly, we 10044263161

1 recommend the Commission find no reason to believe that the Haverford Township 2 Democratic Party violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a).

3                   b. Website disclaimer

4           The Commission's definition of "public communication," which requires a 5 disclaimer, includes "paid Internet advertising placed on another person's website, but 6 does not encompass any other form of Internet communication." 71 Fed Reg. 18,589 7 (Apr. 12, 2006).

8           The Commission specifically concluded that the definition of "public 9 communication" should not be expanded to encompass state, district, and local party 10 committee websites. Id. at 18,597. In the rulemaking, the Commission noted that "State, 11 district, and local party committee websites are not predominantly focused on Federal 12 elections" and that content changed frequently so that "a hyperlink to a Federal candidate 13 from the home page of a State party committee Web site one day" might be removed the 14 next. Id. The rule excluding state, district, and local committee websites, therefore, 15 avoided the "difficult, if not impossible" task of identifying and severing the costs of the 16 federal portion of a state committee website. Id.

17           Because Respondent's website and online contribution form do not constitute 18 public communications, they are not "predominantly focused on Federal elections." 71 19 Fed. Reg. at 18,597. Accordingly, we recommend the Commission find no reason to 20 believe that the Haverford Township Democratic Party website violated the Act's 21 disclosure requirements. 71 Fed. Reg. at 18,589.

22 III. RECOMMENDATIONS

For President: Barack Obama on Economic Prosperity

"I believe that America's free market has been the engine of America's great progress. It's created a prosperity that is the envy of the world. It's led to a standard of living unmatched in history. From CEOs to shareholders, from financiers to factory workers, we all have a stake in each other's success because the more Americans prosper, the more America prospers."

When elected, Obama will provide a tax cuts for working families, eliminate income taxes for seniors making less than $50,000, fight for fair trade, invest in a clean energy economy and create 5 million new green jobs, and provide tax relief for small businesses and start up companies.

Congressman Joe Sestak on Health Security

Sestak for Congress
Leadership with a Vision

"Upon being elected to Congress in 2006, one of the first priorities I set was to address healthcare reform. For our District, I fought to serve on two Congressional Committees that deal with health issues, from which I have been able to craft legislation and be a leading advocate for health care reform. Among the successes have been expanding health care for seniors, cutting costs for Medicare prescription drugs, increasing funding for veteran's health care, expanding funding for cancer research and treatment, providing $29 million for treatment of autism, and supporting legislation to prevent insurance companies from denying coverage to people with pre-existing conditions."

FOR STATE SENATE

"There is perhaps no issue that is more important to our State and region than providing quality education to every child. As a member of the House Education Committee in Harrisburg, I introduced legislation that successfully increased the amount of money available for tutoring programs and raised the eligible age from 9th grade to 12th grade. I was proud to strongly support Governor Rendell's efforts to provide universal access to pre-school for all of Pennsylvania's children. I also fought for full-day kindergarten and smaller class sizes K-3, as well as full funding of special education. As your State Senator I will continue to enable Haverford Township Schools and all public schools to have the funding and resources they need to give all our children the education they deserve."

Dan Siegel for 4th Ward Commissioner Integrity

"As a long time Haverford Township resident I am running for 4th Ward commissioner in the special election on Nov. 4th 2008. My goals are to restore integrity and accountability to the Republican-dominated Board of Commissioners, to encourage businesses to open and thrive in the Township, to make the Township more responsive to the average citizen, to end the favoritism that has plagued the Township for decades, and to speak out on issues that have long been ignored. In the past, the Commissioners have been reluctant to take the bold steps necessary to move the Township forward and to assure that every citizen is treated equally.

It's time for Haverford Township to be the world-class community it aspires to be. I am a leader in numerous organizations and will bring the same drive and commitment to my duties as a Commissioner."
